

Explanation:
«entity» Objects have an identity and are persistent.
«service» Container for operations, which are not specific for an entity.
«value object» Objects without identity and persistence
«commands» Following operations modify the system state.
«queries» Following operations do not modify the system state.

